Culinary Historians of Boston

2022 - 2023

The Culinary Historians of Boston is a non-profit organization dedicated to the study of the history of foodways. The group meets monthly during the academic year for lectures. Each year ends with a participatory banquet devoted to a historic time and place. Members receive a newsletter with announcements of future meetings, accounts of previous ones, notices of new books and other items of interest.

Dues: ☐ $45 Individual Membership ☐ $15 students

Please print out this page (or select and print the form) fill in the following and send it along with a check made out to the Culinary Historians of Boston, to: Agni Thurner, President, Culinary Historians of Boston, 91 Bartlett Avenue, Belmont, MA 02478.

Name: _____ _____ _____
(First) Middle) (Last)

Address (Line1): _____

Address (Line2): _____

_____ _____ _____
City State Zip

Home Telephone: _____ Office Phone: _____

Fax Number: _____ E-mail: _____

Food or Culinary Interest:

Student: Yes ◯ No ◯ Date of payment: _____